 - (b) ensure that waste waters from enclosures are drained in a nuisance free manner and that run-off is kept off adjoining premises or as otherwise directed by an authorised person; and
 - (c) ensure that excreta, food scraps and other material that is, or is likely to become, offensive is collected at least daily and, if not immediately removed from the premises, is kept in a waste container of a kind approved by an authorised person; and
 - (d) ensure that any enclosure in which the animal is kept is properly maintained in—
 - (i) a clean and sanitary condition; and
 - (ii) an aesthetically acceptable condition; and
 - (e) take all reasonable steps to prevent the animal from making a noise or disturbance that causes a nuisance or disturbance to the occupiers of—
 - (i) adjoining premises; or
 - (ii) premises in the vicinity of the land on which the animal is ordinarily kept; and
 - (f) ensure that the area available to the animal kept on the premises is appropriately sized so that the animal can be effectively and comfortably kept; and
 - (g) ensure that the keeping of the animal on the premises does not cause an animal noise nuisance.
2. For the purposes of section 1(g), an animal causes an animal noise nuisance if it makes a noise which —
 - (a) occurs more than once; and
 - (b) disrupts or inhibits an activity ordinarily carried out on adjoining or nearby residential premises.

Example for section 2(b) —

A noise made by an animal which disrupts a person—

- (a) holding a conversation; or
- (b) watching television; or
- (c) listening to a radio or recorded material; or
- (d) sleeping.

In order for an animal noise nuisance under this section 2 to occur, it is not necessary that the degree of interference from the noise is such as to be continuous, or to make it practicably impossible to—

- (a) hold a conversation; or
- (b) watch television; or
- (c) listen to a radio or recorded material at ordinary volumes; or
- (d) fall or stay asleep.

Any occurrence by which a person is woken from sleep, or by which a person is distracted or annoyed during the course of carrying out some other ordinary activity, in a way which would not occur in the absence of the animal noise, is a disruption to or an inhibition of an activity ordinarily carried out on residential premises. It is not necessary that the animal noise totally drowns out the sound of the conversation, television, radio or recorded material. It is sufficient if attention is merely diverted from this sound by the noise which is being made by the animal. It is not necessary that the animal noise be a repeated or ongoing interruption of sleep or that the animal noise results in the total shattering of sleep.
